- 2. On 14 December, the Luftnachrichten Kaserne was occupied by about 2,500 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with artillery and tank insignia. Up to 250 troops were repeatedly observed drilling in the barracks yard. Several 100 troops were repeatedly observed in the Schoenow training area, where they received training in firing, including marksmanship. Entrenching work and the construction of field fortifications was under way in the training area. Seven 57-mm AT guns and 4 T-34/85 tanks were seen in the installation.

- 4. On 12 December, the Luftnachrichten Kaserne was occupied to capacity. On 6 December, a column of about 400 to 480 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and preceded by a military band was seen on the Bernau-Schoenow road, marching toward the training area. The troops returned at about noon. Source had the impression that these troops were recruits.
